

AI Agent Challenge for Housing Loan Arrears Rescheduling Evaluation Rubric

Criteria	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor
Agentic Decision Intelligence (25 pts)	21–25 pts — Agent autonomously retrieves data, validates eligibility, analyzes income, obligations, arrears, family circumstances, applies policy rules, and provides explainable recommendations with minimal human intervention.	16–20 pts — Strong automated assessment with sound recommendation logic and limited human dependency.	10–15 pts — Partial automation with basic decision-making capabilities and limited reasoning depth.	0–9 pts — Primarily a workflow tool or chatbot with little autonomous decision capability.
Policy Compliance & Governance (25 pts)	21–25 pts — Fully enforces business rules (20% deduction cap, repayment-period constraints, active-request validation), includes confidence scoring, audit trail, governance controls, and	16–20 pts — Strong rule enforcement with reasonable governance measures.	10–15 pts — Partial policy implementation with limited governance controls.	0–9 pts — Weak policy adherence or inability to justify recommendations .

Criteria	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor
	human escalation mechanisms.
Technical Excellence & Data Integration (20 pts)	17–20 pts — Demonstrates seamless integration with UAE PASS, loan systems, arrears databases, salary verification, and supporting document validation with robust architecture.	13–16 pts — Solid integration and technical implementation with moderate depth.	8–12 pts — Functional prototype with basic integrations.	0–7 pts — Limited technical implementation or weak system integration.
Impact on Service Transformation (15 pts)	13–15 pts — Significantly reduces processing time, improves consistency, reduces manual effort, and enables near real-time decision-making while maintaining fairness and transparency.	10–12 pts — Demonstrates meaningful operational improvement.	6–9 pts — Limited measurable efficiency gains.	0–5 pts — Minimal impact on current service delivery.
Demo, Explainability & User	13–15 pts — Demonstrates complete beneficiary	10–12 pts — Clear demonstration with	6–9 pts — Basic demonstration with limited	0–5 pts — Weak or incomplete demonstration

Criteria	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor
Experience (15 pts)	journey from UAE PASS login to recommendation, clearly explains decisions, handles exceptions, and provides an intuitive user experience.	understandable recommendation logic.	explanation of decisions.	with unclear outcomes.